科目の概要	This course will help students build confidence with grammar and sentence structure, express main ideas in a paragraph and learn to identify main ideas in reading. Activities are designed to encourage students to think critically and express their ideas in writing and to support their ideas using examples, facts, and reasons to assist them in understanding a reading. Vocabulary acquisition in reading will include learning key words and context clues to guess meaning and to allow students to express themselves in different writing methods. Through reading and writing, students will learn to draw conclusions from a text and use strategies to effectively connect words with ideas to improve their writing skills.
授業の目標	The objectives of this course are to enable students to comprehend stories from readings, answer and make questions and learn to comprehend fiction and non-fiction materials. Students will write short summaries of textbook readings and articles, and guess basic word and phrase meanings from context and syntax clues. Students will be expected to understand the topics and main ideas of the readings, and skim and scan texts. Students will be expected to support their writing with reasons, to edit grammar in their writing, to write and re-write paragraphs with topic sentences and supporting sentences. Moroever, students are expected to do timed writing with good paragraph format, edit common mistakes, analyze and evaluate organization, coherence, and unity in paragraphs.
時間外学習 （予習・復習）	Students will receive 20 or more hours of homework set for each week for both group and individual assignments included each semester. Students will also type approximately 10 writing papers per semester or 20 per year. Moreover, 10 book reports for graded readers will be almost on a weekly basis.
